

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to have their stations to broadcast political advertising and opinion that is detrimental to Senator John Kerry in the guise of a documentary is inappropriate. Especially just before our presidential election

Clearly our media has become too narrowly held in the hands of a few powerful companies with their own interests that no longer fill the definition of public service or public benefit from public airwaves.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. What happened to the fairness doctrine and to making license renewals contingent upon service to the public?

Thank you.
